Hello!

My name is [first name and last name] and I represent CRRC-Georgia, a non-profit independent research center. We are conducting a survey about the European Union. Your family has been selected randomly, along with a couple thousand other families in Georgia.

Participation in our survey is voluntary. All answers, as well as your family members' identities will be kept fully confidential. If it is OK with you, I would like to address one of the adult members of your family with questions that will help us understand opinions of the population of our country. Reliability of survey findings largely depends on the willingness of the selected member of your family to participate in the survey.

This interview will last for approximately 45 minutes. With your help, I will select an adult member of your family who will be interviewed. It is very important to follow certain procedures while selecting this person.

Let's talk about your family, i.e. people who currently live with you most of the time, regardless their legal place of residence, and with whom you share income and expenses. Let's talk ONLY about people who currently live together with you.
