[INTERVIEWER! GREET PERSON WHO OPENED THE DOOR IN GEORGIAN. IF (S)HE DOES NOT SPEAK GEORGIAN, ASK IF THERE IS ANY PERSON IN THE HOUSEHOLD WHO CAN SPEAK GEORGIAN. ADDRESS THIS PERSON WITH THE FOLLOWING TEXT:]

Hello, my name is _____. I represent the Caucasus Research Resource Centers of the Eurasia Partnership Foundation. We are conducting a survey on social attitudes towards the August crisis in Georgia. This survey is not ordered by government or any political party. Responses are fully confidential, according to the international research standards. We are not going to ask your name or mark any information that can be used for respondent's identification. We would like to talk to one member from your family. We will select this member randomly according to the last birthday. All adult – 18 and older - members of your family are considered in the selection. You can refuse to answer any of the questions or stop interview at any time. The interview will last for 30 minutes approximately. Do you have any questions?

[INTERVIEWER! ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS. IF A PERSON YOU TALK WITH REFUSES TO CONTINUE, LEAVE THE HOUSEHOLD AND FILL INTERVIEWER'S FORM.]

[INTERVIEWER! SELECT A MEMBER WITH THE LAST BIRTHDAY. AFTER SELECTION, ASK:]

The person, I would like to interview is: [WRITE NAME AND BIRTHDAY] _____
Is this person currently home?
If home:	May I please interview this person now?
If not home:	Will this person return here at any time today, tomorrow or after tomorrow?
If refused:	Thank you very much. I will select another household. Good bye.
	[INTERVIEWER! YOU CAN NOT SUBSTITUTE INDIVIDUALS.]
If yes:	If you would not mind, tell her/him that I will return for the interview. [SPECIFY DATE AND TIME].

[INTERVIEWER! ENTER THE RELEVANT INFORMATION IN THE INTERVIEWER'S FORM. IF RESPONDENT AGREES, PRESENT YOURSELF WITH THE SAME TEXT AND START THE INTERVIEW]

[INTERVIEW SHOULD BE CONDUCTED IN A CONVENIENT SURROUNDING WHERE NO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE HOUSEHOLD ARE PRESENT, AS THE SURVEY CONCERNS POLITICAL ISSUES AND IT IS PREFERRED A PERSON TO BE FREE OF ANY INFLUENCE WHILE EXPRESSING PERSONAL VIEWS]

A3. Time the interview started: _____

Hour Minute

[INTERVIEWER! USE 24-HOUR FORMAT.]

B1. Gender of selected respondent: 1 Male 2 Female

Let's start with a few simple demographic questions and then I will ask several questions about your political views in general. We know from the previous researches that people in Georgia have various different political opinions. We are interested to learn about attitudes different groups have towards recent events in Georgia. I would like to remind that confidentiality of your responses will be kept strictly. Your responses will help Georgian, as well as foreign researchers to better acknowledge in current political tendencies in Georgia. Do you have any questions?

[INTERVIEWER! ANSWER RESPONDENT'S QUESTIONS FULLY AND FRANKLY! IF THE RESPONDENT DOES NOT WANT TO CONTINUE, STOP THE INTERVIEW AND FILL RELEVANT FIELDS IN THE INTERVIEWER'S FORM]

[INTERVIEWER! GO TO QUESTION 10.]

9C. People give different reasons for not voting in the 2008 Presidential Election. Describe, in your own words, why you did not vote.

[INTERVIEWER! DO NOT READ THE ANSWERS! CHOOSE ONE THAT BEST APPLIES.]

It was a waste of time – “I was sure that President Saakashvili would win”	1
It was a protest – “I was sure that President Saakashvili would win, but I think elections are rigged and I didn’t want to participate.”	2
I was told how to vote and I didn’t like it, so I went to the ballot box and turned in a blank vote instead.”	3
Apathy/Disinterest – “I simply don’t care about politics in this country // “All politicians are completely out of touch with the real needs of this country.” // “Everyone is equally corrupt.”	4
It was impossible – “I was sick, tired, in the hospital, outside of Georgia, too young, etc.”	5
Someone Else’s Fault – “I was told not to participate.”	6

18A. Like your friends, most Georgians probably don't want another Revolution right now. I'm going to list off five possible reasons why an individual might not support revolutionary action against the government. Please say whether you agree or disagree each reason.

[INTERVIEWER! READ THE REASONS. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER IN EACH ROW.]

TABLE 18A

		Agree	Disagree	(Don't know)	(Refused)
1	The country is at war right now and Saakashvili needs support from all of us. Internal weakness and revolution is just what Russia wants.	1	0	-1	-2
2	The Shevardnadze government betrayed our country's values, and made policies that were against our national interests. The Saakashvili government isn't as bad.	1	0	-1	-2
3	Saakashvili has shown us that he will not step down from power peacefully. If there were protests like the Rose Revolution, people would get hurt.	1	0	-1	-2
4	Elections have shown us that there aren't good alternatives to the current government. We might end up with a new government that's even worse.	1	0	-1	-2
5	Georgia is a constitutional democracy, so we have to stick with our current regime until they lose an election.	1	0	-1	-2

22. Politicians often promise a lot of different things, but then don't follow through on all of them. I am going to present you with a list of important political issues. I would like you to choose which three are most important to you.

[INTERVIEWER! READ ALL CHOICES TWO TIMES, THEN LET RESPONDENT CHOOSE THREE.]

Forge better diplomatic, cultural, and economic ties with the West.	1
Forge better military relations with the West (for example, by trying to join NATO).	2
Creating a stable environment for investment, stability, and growth, so that there are more good jobs.	3
Reduction of government corruption in the judiciary, police, and other state bodies.	4
Reclaiming control of the secessionist territories of South Ossetia and Abkhazia.	5
Re-establishing good economic and political relations with Russia.	6
Repairing the national army so that we can defend ourselves even if our allies abandon us.	7
(Don't know)	-1
(Refused)	-2

23. If you had to choose one over-riding priority out of those top 3, which one of these issues do you believe is the single most important national priority?

[INTERVIEWER! READ ONLY THE THREE OPTIONS RESPONDENT CHOSE.]

Forge better diplomatic, cultural, and economic ties with the West.	1
Forge better military relations with the West (for example, by trying to join NATO).	2
Creating a stable environment for investment, stability, and growth, so that there are more good jobs.	3

- 26B. You say that the president acted in a completely wrong way in a recent foreign policy crisis. Which of these three statements best captures how you feel about Saakashvili?

[INTERVIEWER! READ ALL THREE OPTIONS. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER.]

Saakashvili made huge mistakes, but I can imagine forgiving those mistakes with time.	1
Saakashvili made huge mistakes and I have lost confidence in his ability to lead our nation.	2
Saakashvili will be remembered by historians as one of Georgia's historically terrible leaders.	3
(Refused)	-2

27. In the past, Saakashvili has talked about granting “autonomy” to Abkhazia and South Ossetia, in order to convince them to be a part of Georgia. Now I’m going to read several options and please tell, would you approve or disapprove granting such rights to Abkhazia and South Ossetia as exchange for their return into Georgia.

TABLE 27

		Approve	Disapprove	(Don't know)	(Refused)
1	Refugees might be able to go back to Abkhazia or South Ossetia, but their homes will be owned by those who have been living there until now. So, property rights would be guaranteed by the governments of South Ossetia and Abkhazia and not by central government.	1	0	-1	-2
2	Schools and Universities in Abkhazia should be allowed to teach in only Russian, not Georgian	1	0	-1	-2
3	The governments in Abkhazia and South Ossetia should be able to keep ethnic Georgians from serving in the police forces.	1	0	-1	-2
4	Abkhazia and South Ossetia should be permitted to retain military and border guards and to collect customs duties by themselves.	1	0	-1	-2
5	Georgian refugees who fled their homes in Abkhazia and South Ossetia in the early 1990's might be prohibited from returning home.	1	0	-1	-2
6	Abkhaz and South Ossetian citizens should be given the right to serve in high positions in Georgian government even without knowledge of Georgian language.	1	0	-1	-2
7	Georgian companies cannot buy property in Abkhazia and South Ossetia, if the local governments decide to prohibit it.	1	0	-1	-2
8	Russian companies should have a right to buy property in Abkhazia and South Ossetia, if the local governments decide to allow it.	1	0	-1	-2
9	Import and export in Abkhazia and South Ossetia will be subject to different taxes than goods anywhere else in Georgia.	1	0	-1	-2

- 28L. Some people say that the United States and Europe acted in bad faith towards Georgia, suggesting that they would come to Georgia's aid if it were attacked by Russia but failing to act when the time came. Do you agree?

Yes	1
No	0
(Don't know)	-1
(Refused)	-2

- 29L. Some people say that the United States and European states are powerless to put pressure on Russia, at least as long as oil prices are high. They are far away from Georgia, and can't be relied upon. Do you agree?

Yes	1
No	0
(Don't know)	-1
(Refused)	-2

- 30L. Some people say that over the long term, it's impossible to achieve any real security or economic development without aid, military support, and cooperation from Russia. We might not be able to simultaneously ally with the West and Russia, and clearly we should choose the lesser. Do you agree?

34. Most people agree that a good relationship with Russia, increasing ties with Europe and the US, and a settlement that reincorporates Abkhazia and South Ossetia into Georgia are all important long-term priorities for the Georgian government. But sometimes it is important to prioritize. I would like you to rank order those three – Relations with Russia, Relations with the West, and reincorporating territories – from most important to least important.

[INTERVIEWER! RANK EACH PRIORITY BY WRITING NUMBERS FROM 1 TO 3 WHERE 1 MEANS THE MOST IMPORTANT AND 3 MEANS THE LEAST IMPORTANT]

Priorities	Number in priorities ranking
Relationship with Russia	1
Relationship with West	2
Reincorporation of territories	3
(Don't know)	-1
(Refused)	-2

35. Which of the following statements best captures your belief system?

[INTERVIEWER! READ EACH STATEMENT. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER.]

Re-establishing control of all of the territory of Georgia is our most urgent national priority. Good relations with the West or Russia are just a means to that end, and once we have the territories back it will be possible to choose our own way. If I had the choice, I would never abandon the dream of national reunification.	1
Russia is our neighbor and most important economic trading partner and rebuilding relations with Russia must come first. If I had the choice, I would give up on this silly dream of joining the West and hope that Russia would broker a deal to let us get the territories back somehow.	2
The West is our best hope for the future, and should be our most urgent national priority. We clearly can live with Russia unless we get protection from NATO, and continuing to press for the territories is clearly a barrier to that strategic goal. If I had the choice, I would let Abkhazia and South Ossetia join Russia, in exchange for joining the NATO and closer economic ties to Europe.	3
I disagree with all of those statements. [INTERVIEWER! IF THE RESPONDENT CHOOSES 4, ASK HER TO EXPLAIN WHAT THEY BELIEVE IN THEIR OWN WORDS. IF THEIR RESPONSE SOUNDS LIKE 1, 2, OR 3, GIVE THEM THE CHANCE TO CHANGE THEIR ANSWER. IF THE RESPONSE DOES NOT SOUND LIKE ANY, THEN LEAVE 4]	4

36L. Some people think that this is an opportunity – a good time to let those territories go their own way, re-draw the borders, and try to get into NATO. Do you agree?

37. Do you think that Saakashvili will still be president of Georgia in October 2011? Let me remind that the next presidential elections are to be held in 2012 according to the Constitution. Now I'm going to read several statements and please tell which one do you think is most possible?

[INTERVIEWER! READ EACH STATEMENT. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER.]

I am confident that Saakashvili will still be leading Georgia as its president in 2011.	1	→ GO TO 38
I would not be surprised if Saakashvili were still leading Georgia as its president in 2011.	2
The future is too uncertain; too many things can change.	3
I would not be surprised if someone other than Saakashvili were leading Georgia in 2011.	4
I am confident that someone other than Saakashvili will be leading Georgia in 2011.	5

37A. There are many people, like you, who think that Saakashvili's chances of remaining as president are small. I'm going to present you with a few scenarios, and I want you to say whether they are plausible or implausible.

Obviously, you're not endorsing that any of these things should happen – you are only commenting on what you believe is somewhat likely, based on your life experience.

[INTERVIEWER! READ EACH STATEMENT. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER IN EACH ROW.]

TABLE 37A

		Plausible	Implausible	(Don't know)	(Refused)
1	There will be an election between now and then and Saakashvili will lose. He will step down peacefully.	1	0	-1	-2
2	There will be an election between now and then and Saakashvili will cheat to win. He will step down after a massive public demonstration.	1	0	-1	-2
3	There will be some sort of coup, or backroom reshuffling of power. Maybe Saakashvili will even still be the president, but he'll be someone else's puppet.	1	0	-1	-2
4	Russia will use their influence to install a preferred candidate.	1	0	-1	-2
5	Saakashvili will be assassinated, imprisoned, or forced to leave the country.	1	0	-1	-2

38. I'm going to read two statements. I would like you to identify which of those two statements you most agree with. Please choose statement 1 or statement 2.

[INTERVIEWER! READ BOTH STATEMENT AND ASK RESPONDENT TO WHICH ONE DOES (S)HE AGREE TO. THEN ASK WHETHER (S)HE AGREES OR STRONGLY AGREES TO THE STATEMENT.]

Statement 1: Georgian government should keep spending money on the army so that country could be defended effectively in the future.		Statement 2: Georgian government should redirect expenditures from the army to other public services, since our army will not be able to defend the country from the Russians anyway.
Strongly agree with the first statement 1	Agree with the first statement 2	Agree with the second statement 4	Strongly agree with the second statement 5

40L. Now, I would like you to evaluate the president's action in the possible situation

Imagine President Saakashvili demands that the Russian Military withdraw all of its troops from Liakhvi Valley in South Ossetia, threatening that the Georgian military will use force to remove Russian troops if they do not leave. Russia ignores the threat, and Russian troops do not leave. Months pass, and the Georgian army launches a surprise attack on Russian positions. The Russian military holds firm, and the Georgian military takes heavy casualties, and is condemned by the international media. A few months later, Russian troops leave the Liakhvi Valley voluntarily after great pressure from the West and NATO. Other parts of South Ossetia stay under the control of Russian and South Ossetian forces.

How would you evaluate the president's handling of the situation?

[INTERVIEWER! READ ALL OPTIONS. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER.]

41. I'm going to read a few statements about how the crisis escalated in Georgia. Please choose only one statement.

[INTERVIEWER! READ ALL. ACCEPT ONLY ONE ANSWER.]

The decision to fire on South Ossetian villages was probably made by president Saakashvili alone.	1
The decision to fire on South Ossetian villages was probably made by president Saakashvili after consultations with a small group of his close affiliates.	2
The decision to fire on South Ossetian villages was probably made by president Saakashvili after consultations with his ministers and a few members of the parliamentary leadership outside his inner circle.	3
The decision to fire on South Ossetian villages was probably made by president Saakashvili after consultations with his ministers and parliamentary leadership, including the parliamentary opposition leaders.	4
The decision to fire on South Ossetian villages was probably not made by Saakashvili at all, but instead by local commanders. He is taking the blame for the decisions of his underlings.	5
